Girl Reporter Becomes Dropout In Lemon Grove School A Go-Go

by Charlene Gurling

Miss Gurling, a journalism student at Grossmont College, is, by her own admission, a dancer who is too lacking in rhythm to be a go-go dancer. Her assignment as a go-go learner was made to provide readers with an insight into a new form of "showbiz."

I am a "go-go girl" school dropout.

My former classmates, I suppose, still are clicking their tongues and agreeing that I just didn't have what it takes to keep up with other go-go students.

When I applied for enrollment at the new Lemon Grove School A Go Go, which is housed in an attractive building at 1328 Broadway, it occurred to me that the reception room could have been that of any other exclusive school. Appointments were attractive and the receptionist was pretty.

Bar Dancer

A go-go girl, as I understood it, is a barroom dancer. Previous to the L. G. School of Go-Go, there had been no standard of training. These dancers did their own version of such latter day exhibitions as the frog, swim, jerk and other gyrations, the titles of which suggest other than the terpsichorean art.

The more highly paid "artists," I had heard, were those who are billed as "topless." As the designation indicates, these performers wear their total costumes below their waistlines.

I had announced myself to the receptionist as a prospective student rather than as a reporter in search of a story. I was asked to wait for the director of the school who was teaching a class. She would be out in a few minutes.

Terrific Demand

As I waited I talked to the receptionist, between phone calls, about the school. I learned that there was a terrific demand for go-go girls locally, that some of the girls signed up for classes were already working in nightclubs and were there to brush up on the new dances, and that the first week they had been open they had signed up quite a few girls.

A door opened and a pretty young woman, with very long hair, dressed in red dancing tights came out. This was Jeanne Martin, the director. We were introduced and I learned that Miss Martin had been dancing professionally in the area for many years. She is dancing currently at the Sunset Room Lounge. We then went into her office for my interview.

Dance Instruction

The course would require between 12 and 20 hours of classroom time, with instruction in the different dances, theatrical make up, costume making, and stage presence. The school would act as my agent and give me free training and placement service. The school would pay me my wages after I started working and even take care of my income tax. I was told that it. After that we did the Cha-Cha and the Swing. By then I knew Brenda Starr was a better reporter than I; she never tires and delights in bizarre assignments.

At last we were through for the day. With advice to start planning our costumes, we put

I left the interview feeling that I, or, any girl, could dance her way to fame and riches after training.

First Lesson

Two days later I was back at the school for my first lesson. I was late and the other girls were learning the Pony. I joined the line up in front of the mirrors but before I could try, we switched to the Jerk. The instructor demonstrated basic steps. Then we would practice in a group and individually to records. For several minutes we just walked around the room doing the Jerk. (The Jerk is a dance that looks like you are having appendicitis pains while you are trying to hit someone with your elbows.) I thought about when Jacqueline Kennedy as a reporter and I was sure she never did anything like this for a story.

We took a break after that. The other 5 girls and I talked about the length fringe will sway best on the costumes; what hard work dancing is, and then the conversation was dominated by those who were mothers, with comparisons and cute anecdotes of their children.

Hip Shaking

Too soon, we were back on our feet. The Watusi came next. We drilled in shaking our hips back and forth and then put the hand motions to the swim with it. After that we did the Cha-Cha and the Swing. By then I knew Brenda Starr was a better reporter than I; she never tires and delights in bizarre assignments.

At last we were through for the day. With advice to start planning our costumes, we put

Burgener To Try For State Senate

Assemblyman Clair W. Burgener (R-San Diego), has announced he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination to the State Senate in San Diego County's newly created 38th Senatorial District.

The district encompasses Spring Valley, Lemon Grove, El Cajon, La Mesa, the northern portion of the City of San Diego, plus most of North San Diego County.

First elected to the California State Legislature in 1962, Burgener owns a real estate firm that employs 40 persons in seven offices, conducting general real estate business throughout the State of California.

He was elected a San Diego City Councilman in May, 1953, and served a four-year term. He did not seek re-election to the City Council post when the term was completed, but concentrated on expanding his community responsibilities and his business operations. He served as general chairman of the United Fund drives in San Diego County in 1953, and was president of United Community Services in 1960.

He served as chairman of the San Diego County Nixon for President committee in 1960, in which his campaign efforts, heavily concentrated in the area that has become the new 38th District, gave Nixon a 55,000 vote margin in his race for the presidency.

our street clothes on. As I walked out the door I thought about the Lizard, the Monkey, the Dog, the Slow-Step, and the Frog we were yet to learn and decided I was going to be a go-go school dropout.

'Befana' Brings Gifts

Snowless Christmas In Store For Italo

BY NORM HUTSELL

It will be a snowless Christmas this year for Italo Ferrarini.

The 17-year-old Italian foreign exchange student, who is attending Mount Miguel High School, has seen snow "as long as I can remember" on the ground on Christmas day.

"In my country in Italy, we always have snow this time of the year," Italo relates.

Other Changes
A snowless Christmas will not be the only change for Italo Ferrarini. It will also be 12 days early as Christmas is celebrated on Jan. 6 in the boot-shaped country.

In Italy, Santa Claus is not Santa Claus as we know him—mainly, because Santa Claus is a her.

"Befana gives gifts to the children in Italy. She puts them in the chimneys," says Italo. According to Italo, the Italian people do not give as much importance to Santa as we do here.

Little Statuettes
"We create the nativity of Christ (presepio) with little painted statuettes in one corner of the room. Along with the 'presepio' is a Christmas tree but it is second in importance.

It has been a little more than three months since Italo's ship docked in New York City and America is "more wonderful every day" to the Italian teenager.

Italo, who is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Woodward of 7601 Circle Dr., Lemon Grove, is from Castellfranco, a city of 10,000 in the county of Emilia, which is located below the valley of the Po river, the north central region of Italy.

School System
One of the things that has surprised Italo most about this country has been its school system.

"In Italy, we do not choose our classes as you do here. We also do not have the activities such as teams and bands. Also, the teachers move from class to class instead of the students."

Italo, here because of the American Field Service program, plans to become a surgical doctor.

Diploma Test
When he returns to Italy, he will resume his studies and in one year will be given a test for a diploma. Following that, he will go on to the University of Bologna for a six-year term.

When he completes that phase, he will have received his general doctor's degree and will study for two more years to become a surgical doctor.

Besides being a gifted student, Italo is also proficient in the field of music, playing a saxophone for 10 years.

He was a member of a dance band in Italy before coming here.

Dancing Unusual
Speaking of dancing, Italo thinks it is very unusual here. "In Italy you hold the girl while you are dancing. Here, the girl is a mile away. You can't find two people who dance the same way here."

Italo, who will be 18 on Feb. 25, will take a three week trip across the U.S. before returning to Italy Aug. 1.

Donovan Act Good For Good Drivers

The Donovan Bill, Assembly Bill 1058, will produce future generations of adequately trained and safety-conscious drivers, according to its author, Assemblyman Dick Donovan.

The law provides that after July 1, 1967, drivers' licenses cannot be granted to persons under 18 years of age until they have completed both driver training and driver education. Such training is given at high schools.

Under Donovan's law, persons between 16 and 18 must successfully complete the Department of Motor Vehicles examination in addition to the prescribed courses.

Under the law an instruction permit cannot be given to anyone under 17 years and 6 months of age if he has not completed the training course. Presently, it can be issued to a person at 15 years and 6 months. It also changes the minimum age from 18 to 25 years for a licensed driver who may supervise the driving of a person holding an instruction permit. It further requires that such supervisory licensees hold a five-year license.

Sponsors of the Act felt that the requirement for taking the school training will reduce the high school drop-out rate. It almost equates driving privileges with high school attendance.

Insurance company statistics show that young drivers who have taken the training have consistently better safety records than those who have not.

Additional statistical data presented by the Department of Motor Vehicles has shown good driving records of minors in the 16-18 age bracket, especially for those who have had driver education and driver training.

Make Way For A Mechanical Genius

On a scale of mechanical ability we must rate pretty high. It took astronauts Thomas Stafford and Walter Schirra three days to get their appliance going after they discovered Sunday it wasn't plugged in.

The day before, we found and fixed the same trouble with the family toaster in only 20 minutes.

Saturday Is Deadline For Project ACTT

Project ACTT, a joint effort between the San Diego County Junior Chamber of Commerce and County Young Republican Clubs, will end Saturday at 5 p.m.

The purpose of the project is to collect items to send to U. S. soldiers in Viet Nam, who will in turn give them to the people of South Viet Nam.

Needed are medical supplies (soaps, disinfectants, bandages, gauze, cotton, adhesive — no drugs), food (dehydrated soups, powdered milk and eggs, beans, rice, flour, sugar, etc.), clothing and toys for children (light wear as Viet Nam is tropical—cotton clothing for a child of 12 will furnish adults well as Vietnamese are small people), and 4197.

Street Lights Can Be Obtained By Petition

"If the people of Lemon Grove want more street lights, they have to do is to call special district services at the County Administrative Center and the matter will be acted on," Joe Rushing of the County Special District Services told members of the Lemon Grove Men's Club last Friday.

"After we receive phone calls from people interested in street lighting, we investigate and report our findings to a commission board which reviews it before returning the report to us."

enough response, petitions are then circulated among the people of the area desiring lighting and they in turn seek enough signatures (66 per cent) to enable the county to put in the lights," Rushing said.

He added, "It's very simple. The action rests on the shoulders of the people. We can't do a thing without the people initiating a petition."

Rushing stated during the meeting that increased lighting is an assistance to the departments, police forces, etc.

Mount Miguel High School's Marching Matadors are seeking funds needed to finance their trip to Pasadena New Year's Day to represent San Diego City and County in the Rose Parade, according to Spring Valley Fire Chief Frank Berger, project chairman.

The situation arose last week when the San Diego City Council refused to provide funds for the band because Mount Miguel was not a city school.

In past years, both the city and county have divided the monies needed to send a representative to the annual event, which is witnessed by millions via national TV.

This year the county gave the band $790 of the $1,900 needed to transport and house a band. Mount Miguel won the honor by defeating other City and County high schools in the Autumn Band Review in November.

The Spring Valley Kiwanis Club donated $150 and the Lemon Grove Rotary Club contributed a like amount. Sam Pernicano, a pizzaria operator, gave $10. The Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club will provide an indeterminate amount, depending on contributions from individual members. Other local service clubs are in the process of raising funds to contribute.

Individual contributions may be made at this newspaper office or at the business office at Mount Miguel.

Finders Music Store has offered to donate to the parade fund if anyone mentions Mount Miguel when buying a musical instrument, including organ or piano, from their stores.

The band will be marching three hours a day the week after Christmas in preparation for the seven-mile parade route.

Assessor Is Former FBI Agent

Eldon "Chuck" Williams, former special agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation office in San Diego, was selected county tax assessor Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors.

Williams retired from the FBI service earlier this month after 22 years of service. He is 50.

His duties as assessor commenced with his appointment.

"The appointment of Mr. Williams will bring new confidence to employees of the assessor's office and assurance to the public that the office will be operated efficiently and honestly," said Henry Boney, 2nd District supervisor in making the announcement here.

The job pays $19,84 a year until Jan. 1, 1967 when the rate will be $22,000. The post will be up for election next June.

Williams replaces the late John McQuillen, who died Oct. 21.

Nevada Accident Victim Stretched Home By Air

The surviving family of a Nevada auto crash in October returned to Lemon Grove Saturday but they had the help of two Lemon Grove pilots to make it.

Mr. and Mrs. Murlin Forester, of 3528 Sweetwater Rd., were flown from Boulder City, Nev., to Gillespie Airport by Carl Johnston and Claude Metzger.

Two Die
The Foresters are survivors of a traffic accident which claimed the lives of two other occupants of the car—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Montag, of 3530 Sweetwater Rd. Mrs. Montag and Mrs. Forester are sisters. Both couples had purchased retirement property in Arizona which they were working in preparation for eventual retirement. They were returning from a side trip to Las Vegas when the accident occurred.

Another sister, Mrs. Loretta Tucker, of St. Louis, came to Lemon Grove to handle the funeral arrangements of the Montags and stayed to care for the duplex in which the Montags and Foresters lived.

Transported Home
Mrs. Tucker last week was seeking the most expedient way to bring the Foresters home when the hospital in Boulder City released them Saturday. Mrs. Forester was to be transported on a stretcher.

Ambulances, Mrs. Tucker learned, charged $1 a mile. The trip is 360 miles. On the suggestion, she called Carl Johnston, of 7620 Lansing Dr., Lemon Grove, operator of Briese Johnston Flying Service at Gillespie Field, Johnston, and another Lemon Grove pilot, Claude Metzger, took two seats from a six-place Piper Cherokee Seventeen permits, valued at $334,000, were issued including 12 by the Amso Development Co. of La Mesa.

Two permits at $29,000 were issued for new commercial public buildings also in Lemon Grove.

Spring Valley was tops in the county for permits covering duplexes and over with six at $36,000. One new family dwelling permit was issued for $30,000.

Total permits issued for all types of construction were 50 at $15,000 in Lemon Grove and 14 for $74,000 in Spring Valley.

School Lunch Hike Eyed By LG Trustees

The Lemon Grove school board took a look at the rising cost of food and salaries Monday night and agreed to decide whether or not to add a nickel to the cost of school lunches. It will be the first raise in the 20 years the district has been serving food, Byron Netzley, district superintendent said. He said that the district will explore all means to hold the price line, however. Present cost is 25c except at junior high where 30c is charged.

The district broke even until now but rising costs indicate a substantial loss is being faced. The board indicated it would not cut quality or quantity.

In other action the board initiated an application for federal funds to be used for improving reading and language arts among the economically deprived students. Application was for a $13,000 federal grant annually. Funds would be used for teachers' aides and language lab equipment and material.

The board also approved procedures and policy implementing the Winston Act. The Act provides machinery for teachers' organizations to meet and confer with the school board on matters of education and curriculum policy. Previously, such meetings had to do with salaries and personnel.

to accommodate the stretcher and made the trip.

Plane Trip
The fliers left Gillespie at 7:15 a.m. Saturday and at 11:25 a.m. the Foresters were being transported from Gillespie to their Sweetwater Rd home—just two hours after the plane picked them up at Boulder City.

Mrs. Tucker said the ambulance plane cost was $115—about one third the cost of a ground ambulance.

"It saved seven or eight hours of travel time, too," Mrs. Tucker said.

The Foresters still plan to retire to their Arizona property when they have recovered.

LG, SV Lead In Building

Lemon Grove led the unincorporated areas of the county in building permits issued for new one family dwellings in the month of November.

Two permits at $29,000 were issued for new commercial public buildings also in Lemon Grove.

"John answered them, 'I baptize with water; but among you stands one you do not know, even he who comes after me, the thing of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'" John 1:25-27. John the Baptist gave witness to the one who could bring order to the constant chaos of life; to the one who could mold and form the broken pieces of that which man calls life. The Greek drama writers considered it dramatically and aesthetically false to allow a god to enter the action of a story unless the action had become so complicated that a resolution could come by no other way than by the entrance of the god. And that, declared Martin Luther, is exactly what happens in the Incarnation and Atonement. Only God could provide a solution to man's complexity, and in Christ, God did provide it.

Girl Scout Chatter

by Mary D. Giacinto

Recently all 26 girls of Troop 755 spent an all-day cook-out at Santee Lake in order to work on their water-fun badges. They were given a chance by their leader, Faye Rothermich, and co-leader, Velda McDonald, to learn how to put on and wear a life-jacket; how to get in and out of a small boat and how they should act on a boat trip.

To show their skill the girls rowed while the leaders coached and enjoyed boat trips on the lake. Two other leaders, Nina Denton, Holly Wilson and two guest mothers, Mary Schmidt and Paula Lurner, were also invited to watch the girls earn their badges.

Cal-Vet Home Losses Covered

Cal-Vet homeowners in flood areas of California have been told by State Director of Veterans Affairs Joseph M. Farber to report flood losses to their local Cal-Vet Farm and Home Office of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

"We are prepared to cover these losses," said Farber, "and the sooner the veterans report them the sooner our people can assess the damage and begin moving to restore the property."

Farber explained that under provisions of legislation passed last summer, his department is empowered to use Cal-Vet money to restore Cal-Vet properties damaged from flood, tidal wave and earthquake, or any other natural disaster not now covered by the contract insurance coverage. He pointed out that earth movements are covered under terms of the current insurance program covering Cal-Vet properties.

Sandra Elizabeth Johnson Wed To David Arthur Nott

Santa Sophia Catholic Church was the setting Saturday, Nov. 27, for a double-ring nuptial Mass, which united a young Spring Valley woman and a Peoria, Ill., man in marriage.

The bride was the former Sandra Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson of 8614 Eileen St. The groom was David Arthur Nott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nott of Peoria. Rev. John Verhoeven, pastor of Santa Sophia, said the Mass. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Lucy Rodriguez of San Francisco, a friend of the bride. Best man was Russell Johnson, brother of the bride. Ushers were Howard Nott, brother of the groom and Orvis Kutschkau, Marian Johnson, sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of lace over satin and nylon tulle, with a wide chapel train. Her tiara was of lace and pearls and held a shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white and blue carnations, centered with a camellia corsage.

The maid of honor wore a blue, street-length dress and carried blue and white carnations. The reception for about 100 guests, was held at the Johnson home. The newlyweds honeymooned in Northern California. They will live temporarily in San Diego.

The new Mrs. Nott, a 1960 graduate of Mount Miguel High School, has been working in San Francisco. Mr. Nott, a 1959 graduate of Richmond High School, Peoria, has been in the Navy nearly three years. The couple plan to live in Peoria eventually.

American Legion Auxiliary Of La Mesa Maintains December As Busy Month

Members of La Mesa Unit No. 282, American Legion Auxiliary, are maintaining a heavy schedule of activities during the month of December.

According to Mrs. Paul McDonald, of Spring Valley, unit president, the following includes part of the unit's activities:

Dec. 1, nine members donated a day of service doing clerical work at the office of the San Diego TB Association.

Dec. 12, a large delegation of members attended a 22nd District meeting held at National City honoring Mrs. Doane Keyser of San Bernardino, department president of the organization.

Friday evening, Dec. 17, the unit members will assist post members in sponsoring a Christmas party for children of Post and Auxiliary members.

Santa Claus will be at the American Legion Hall, 8118 University Ave., to greet the children at seven o'clock with gifts and candies for all. The Auxiliary will furnish the punch and cookies.

Saturday, Dec. 18, at 1:30 p.m. the Juniors of the Auxiliary will hold their Christmas party in the Auxiliary Room at the Hall. For the past week the Juniors have been busily engaged in covering and making decorative boxes to be used for gift wrapping at the Armed Services YMCA in San Diego.

Dec. 22nd, six members of the Auxiliary will assist with the gift wrapping for the service men at the Armed Services YMCA. On that date they will also furnish 50 dozen cookies for a ward party at the San Diego Naval Hospital and 10 dozen cookies for the Christmas party at the Veterans Administration Day Care Center in San Diego.

Past Presidents Club of the Unit will hold a luncheon meeting on Thursday, Dec. 30, in the Auxiliary Room. There will be a gift exchange.

PacTel Pays Installment On Tax Bill

Pacific Telephone, once again the largest property taxpayer in the State, paid more than $3,650,000 Dec. 10 as the first installment on its 1965-66 San Diego County property taxes.

The amount remitted was the largest yet for the telephone company here and reflects Pacific's continuing growth in the county.

Another $3.65 million will be paid as a second installment in April, 1966, making a total tax bill of over $7.3 million for the fiscal year.

Twelve cities within the county will receive proportionate shares of payments from the office of the County Tax Collector. A separate payment is made to the city of Coronado which collects its own taxes.

Total payments in San Diego then in 1964-65, an increase of 3.7 per cent.

Pacific Telephone's total property tax bill in California for fiscal 1965-66 will be $120 million, up $5.4 million or 4.7 per cent over last year and $38.7 million or 48 per cent over five years ago.

Any TV Stars At Home?

Children between the ages of four and fourteen now have a chance to appear on television San Diego's newest and only independent television station KAAR-TV, is looking for children who are talented or have hobbies of interest to appear on their children's show "Kaartoon O Rama".

As Kaartoon O Rama takes place in a space ship, any one with any space projects would naturally be ideal. Scout, Brownie, Camp Fire Girls and other organizations are also welcome. Children need not necessarily be performers; all children are invited to be in the audience and participate in the games and fun.

Kaartoon O Rama is hosted by Suzy Saturn, Space Girl. Fun, excitement and space magic are featured on the show. Any child wishing to be on Kaartoon O Rama should send a card with their name, address, phone number, and age to "Suzy Saturn," Channel 39, San Diego, Calif. 92111.

Marine Reserves To Collect Toys

Marine reservists will appear at the San Diego Chargers-Oakland Raiders' football game Sunday to collect toys in the 18th annual "Toys for Tots" drive.

The reservists of the 4th Tank Battalion will be stationed with collection containers at the entrances to Balboa Stadium, said Lt. Col. Raymond W. Quint, USMCR, commanding officer of the battalion based at Miramar Naval Air Station.

Charger fans wishing to participate in the drive to provide toys this Christmas for less fortunate San Diego County youngsters, may bring toys to the game, Quint said.

All City and County fire stations are cooperating with the Marines and the Salvation Army in the drive. The stations act as collection points.

When the drive ends, Dec. 24, the Marines will turn the toys over to the Salvation Army, which will distribute them to parents at its downtown San Diego headquarters.

Medicare Enrollment Closes In March; Program Goes Into Effect In July

Working round the clock since Sept. 1, Social Security headquarters in Baltimore has completed the mailing of medicare information kits to all of the 15½ million persons 65 and on the Social Security and Railroad Retirement benefit rolls.

By now, all elderly Social Security or Railroad Retirement beneficiaries in the San Diego area should have received their kits and the enclosed application for the supplementary medical insurance part of Medicare. Arlyn B. Carr, Social Security District Manager, stated.

Well over a thousand other older persons—those not on the Social Security or Railroad Retirement benefit rolls—have already been in touch with the Social Security District Office in San Diego, he reported. But many others still need to take action to protect their medicare rights.

Mass Mailing
Eight out of ten aged persons will be reached through the mass mailing, he noted. About one-third of those who will be reached this way are receiving old-age assistance payments and will hear directly from their local welfare agencies.

Another third are still working full time and will need to file Social Security applications. About one million others will also have to get in touch with their local Social Security District Office.

The enrollment period for those who will be 65 or over before the end of the year closes March 31, 1966, Carr pointed out.

Deadline Important
The March 31 deadline is very important, Carr stressed. Everyone who is 65 or will be by Jan. 1, 1966, must return the medical insurance enrollment card by that date—whether received in the mail or picked up at a Social Security District Office, if he wants full protection when the program goes into effect July 1, 1966.

The San Diego Social Security District Office is remaining open Monday evenings until 9 p.m. for the conveniences of those who cannot come during regular office hours. Many of those up in years, he noted may not be able to get out of the house by themselves. Relatives and friends may be able to accompany them in the evening.

For the housebound, the District Office will make arrangements to have a Social Security representative pay a visit to them at home.

have questions on this or any other newspaper matters, please send to this newspaper.)

Q. Do newspapers report news truthfully and do reporters slant news to conform with the views of the publisher?

A. Back in the "good days" the news pages were full of editorial expression and news was written to present newspaper policies. Today's professional newsman reports the news truthfully and objectively. The publisher expresses his views on the editorial page where they belong.

Q. How do you go about getting a good write-up in the paper?

A. It must be newsworthy, well-written, names and spelling correct, and preferably in the style of the newspaper to which sent. Competition for newspaper space is fierce, and nothing can guarantee absolutely that any write-up will be used as desired.

A. How can a damaging news story be kept out of the newspaper?

A. Don't try it! Nothing disturbs an editor more than the suggestion of withholding or suppressing news that he feels the public has a right to know.

Q. What can be done if you don't agree with a newspaper's views?

A. Say so in writing and sign your name! There isn't a newspaper in the nation worth its salt that does not print letters of opposing views. But, have your facts right!

Q. Is the news in newspaper usually reliable?

A. Absolutely! The responsible newsman is a trained observer; a skilled interviewer. He reports what he sees and hears. If controversial, he tries to give both sides of an issue. Reporters work against deadlines and sometimes news can be incomplete, incorrect or one-sided until the full picture develops. Responsible newsmen—and most are—tell the truth and take great pains to write objectively.

Q. Why don't reporters uncover scandals in government while they are happening, rather than exposing them years later?

A. Many are exposed by reporters who are skilled investigators. Their reward? A copyright story in their newspaper. However, usually the facts are so deeply buried in "top secret" files that even Congress can't dig them out. There is pending in Congress "freedom of information" legislation to open up more files to the public and press for scrutiny. Public support for such legislation would be for the benefit of the general public.

Q. Why don't we get more news in depth in our newspapers?

A. The reporter and newsman do the best they can with what information is available. But they have a deadline! Added research may bring follow-up articles to add background, facts, and new developments.

Radio-TV Stations Receive Awards

Two San Diego television and radio stations have been awarded 1965 John Swett Awards for significant contributions to public understanding of education issues, programs and needs. KFMB-TV was given the award for outstanding editorial interpretation of educational issues. KOGO-Radio was honored for an outstanding locally produced program interpreting a major education issue. The awards are named for John Swett, often called the father of public education in California.

Rain Total Here Nears 4 Inches

Rainfall for the season here topped the total of all of last year as a series of storms dumped record-breaking rain, sleet and snow on San Diego County during the past seven days.

The storm which started Dec. 9, produced enough rainfall by Dec. 14 to equal the rainfall total for all of last season. This season still has 6½ months to go.

Interestingly, the storm which shattered the one hour rainfall record when Lindbergh Field measured 1.36 inches during the hour, produced only .08 of an inch here all day.

On that day San Diego traffic was snarled most of the day with Highway 101 southbound closed all day as a result of flooding at Pacific Coast Highway and Barnett. 101 northbound was closed for several hours in the morning and traffic only trickled through the rest of the day.

The storm produced 3.69 inches from Dec. 9 to 15 at noon for a season total of 1203. Last years on the same day the total was 1.77. Season total last year was 10.99. This total was exceeded on Dec. 14. Rainfall measurements are kept locally for a 24-hour period ending at 4 p.m. daily. The rainfall season is for 12 months ending July 1.

ONE INJURED—This car struck a power pole at North and Imperial Avenues Tuesday night at 9:55, causing a power failure in Lemon Grove that lasted more than three-quarters of an hour. One person was injured, Vicki Jo Hoy, 19, of 4730 Lee Ave., La Mesa, a passenger in the car driven by James Gilbert Haynes, 20, of 2441 Cardinal, San Diego. Haynes' car spun out of control and slid into the pole, totally destroying the vehicle. Grossmont Jr. Coll. Board Approves Facility Study

The Grossmont Junior College District Governing Board in their regular meeting held Monday night in the Board Room at the college, approved of a facilities study, submitted by Architect Clyde Hufbauer, on increasing the capacity of the college to the master-planned capacity of 4800 students.

Hufbauer made an oral presentation of his findings at the meeting and the Board authorized him to proceed with preliminary plans for the additional facilities required to bring the college up to its master planned capacity.

The Administration presented an enrollment projection to the Board indicating that in 1970 there would be in excess of 5000 eligible students in the Junior College District and that in 1975 this number would increase to over 7000 students.

These projections were based upon an annual population increase of 4.5 percent as estimated by the utility companies for this area and the direct relationship between population increase and school enrollment which assumes an increase of one percent per year in high school graduates planning to enter a junior college.

Harold Hughes, Grossmont Junior College District Superintendent, reported that the application for federal funds under Public Law No. 815, the federal law which provides assistance to school districts in construction of facilities for federally connected students, was approved for the stagehouse project in the amount of $91,200. The remaining funds for the stagehouse will be provided from monies voted in the bond election.

In other action the Board authorized the administration to proceed with the procurement of equipment for a vocational photography curriculum to be installed in a facility to be constructed as part of the present building program. Fifty percent of the $16,565 authorized for this purpose will be provided under the Vocational Education Act from federal funds.

The Board also approved the hiring of two additional faculty members, one of whom will be a replacement for the 1965 spring semester only.

Larsen's Charges Named To All-Grossmont Team

Four Monte Vista High cross-country runners were named to the all-Grossmont League honorary team. They are Don Olsen, Rod Stephens, Dave Matheny and Dan Ungrecht.

The foursome led Monte Vista to the CIF Large Schools championship recently and also captured the league title. All four are juniors and will be returning next fall to give coach Bob Larsen what should be the most potent cross-country force ever in the prep ranks. Olsen was also honored on the all-San Diego Section CIF team. The Monarch runner finished third in the large schools race at the CIF championships.

New Board Member
Beverly Praxel of the Bank of America, Sweetwater and Jamacha Blvd., has been appointed as a board member of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, succeeding Joe Hildreth also of the Bank of America.

THE ACTOR — Chuck Buckles ponders over script for "Inherit the Wind" in which he plays the role of court bailiff. Buckles is advertising manager of the Lemon Grove Review and Spring Valley Bulletin. "Inherit the Wind," an Old Globe Theatre production, will complete a three-week engagement this weekend at the storied theatre in Balboa Park. Performances will be given tonight and Sunday night at 8 and Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30. Incidentally, if Buckles' hair looks silver, it's because it is. He has been wearing it that way since the play began three weeks ago.

This Week's Spanish Lesson Lists 'Keys'

by William Archer

Lesson No. 1

Reading time 3 Min. Study time 5 Min.

There are 876 irregular verbs in the Spanish language, with six persons to each tense. This means that you must know 52,596 sounds and endings changes in order to employ only the present tense. Also, since there are ten tenses in Spanish, you must know 52,596 sounds and endings just to use the irregular verbs. This does not include the regular verbs, the nouns, the adjectives, the adverbs, the prepositions, conjunctions, participles, gerunds and past participles.

You can speak Spanish in 24 hours of purposeful study! Impossible, you think? Well, Spanish Speed Speech will show you how to master the present, past and future tenses with just six sounds and endings. That's right! You will be able to unlock the Spanish language with all of its mysteries by learning the six "keys" which are presented in Spanish Speed Speech.

How many words do you know in Spanish—10? 20? 50? Speed Speech will show you that you already have a vocabulary of over 5,000 Spanish words. The simple "keys" of Speed Speech will point them out to you.

Here is the first of the six "keys" that will unlock the Spanish language for you: It is "quiero," meaning "I want," "I desire." It is pronounced in English s o u n d, "key-AIR-o." That's all—"key-AIR-o" (I want, I desire). What do you use to unlock a door? A key! What do you breathe? Air! Now, just add an "O," and you have "key-AIR-o," "I desire." Key-AIR-o—"quiero."

Tomorrow, we will give you the second magic "key."

Calif. Boat Registration Expires Soon

Lachlan M. Richards, Chief of the Division of Small Craft Harbors, has reminded boat owners that all California boat registrations will expire on Dec. 31.

New registration is for the three-year period from Jan. 1, 1966 to Dec. 31, 1968, the cost of which is $3. After the Feb. 4 deadline, a penalty of $1.50 will be charged. Boat owners will however have until Feb. 4, 1966 to apply for renewal. More than 350,000 renewal notices will be mailed out to boat owners of record prior to the new year.

Richards pointed out that the easiest way for boat owners to renew boat registrations is to mail the boat renewal notice card and $3 fee to the Division of Small Craft Harbors. If no renewal notice has been received, the boat owner should send in the old Certificate of Number in place of the renewal card.

Boat registration may also be renewed through the Division Registration Agents by calling in person.

Richards stressed that renewal of registration will not change the boat's registration (CF) number.

Drivers May Gain Year

If your driver's license is going to expire in the next six months, you may be able to get an extra year added to your license term if you renew your license before the first of the year, according to Manager L. F. Williams of the Department of Motor Vehicles in La Mesa.

Williams explains that the 1965 legislature passed a law reducing the term of licenses from five to four years for most renewal applicants. DMV will put the law into effect Jan. 1.

Persons applying for license renewal before Jan. 1, will be issued five-year term licenses dated from the expiration dates of their old licenses. But a renewal after Jan. 1, will result in a four-year term license.

"We are able to renew a person's license anytime within six months before its expiration," Williams said. "So a person with a license expiring in April could come in now and be issued a five year license expiring in April, 1971."

DMV estimates that more than a million California drivers' licenses will expire in the next six months, and can be renewed immediately. Licenses cannot be renewed more than six months early.

However, persons with poor driving records and all first-time applicants for a California license will receive a three-year license, regardless of the date they apply. Late renewal of licenses also results in three-year terms.
